

TOWNS BURNED OUT BY FLORIDA STORM

Carrabelle, Sweet Away, and McIntyre & Curtis Mill Demolished.

13 VESSELS ASHORE.

Visitors at Coast Resorts Suffer Severe Hardships from the Tempest.

Tallahassee, Fla., Aug. 3.—The first train since Monday from Carrabelle, through the storm stricken Gulf section, reached here this afternoon. The train crew and passengers report that Carrabelle is literally wiped from the map.

Her decks and wharves, containing about 400,000 feet of lumber and 50,000 barrels of rosin, were swept away. Thirteen of the fourteen large lumber vessels in the bay were blown ashore and are now lying well up on dry land. These vessels contained many million feet of lumber. Their names cannot be ascertained. No information is yet obtainable from the large fleet of fishing boats in the neighborhood.

Only two or three huts are left standing in Carrabelle, and one colored woman is reported to be killed by the falling of a house. Citizens of Sweet Away and McIntyre in every direction for relief. The place is isolated and the wires are all down.

WENT TO PRISON TO SAVE HER HUSBAND.

She Sacrificed Her Liberty in Vain.

This is Mary Kenne who said she was a thief in order to permit her husband, the real burglar, to go free.

Mary Kenne Hoped to Win His Love—Her Sacrifice in Vain.

WHEN FREE HE BEAT HER So, Turning at Last, She Had Her Tormentor Sent to the Workhouse.

MARY KENNE, plain-featured, matter-of-fact from misery, a drudge to all purposes, is withal a heroine. For the sake of a worthless creature—her husband William—Mary Kenne went to jail, hoping thereby to gain the love he had never given her. Naturally, she got nothing except abuse, vile names and physical violence. So in the end Mary Kenne applied to the law for relief.

Chapter I.

HER courting was not so long ago that Mary Kenne has forgotten. She was a farm girl then, with no ambition beyond a good husband and a home of her own. One day a smooth-faced fellow, with easy manners and a plausible tongue, grifted into Babylon, L. I., from no one knows where. Smooth talk and that off-hand, dexterous manner were new things to Mary. She made up her mind in haste when he asked her.

They were married by the village priest, came to New York, and then one day the man stole her face.

Chapter II.

THE people below stairs complained to the police. They had been robbed. The police came around to the West Fifteenth street apartment and one of them met Kenne on the stairs.

NEWS BOILED DOWN.

Louis Kuppel, of No. 224 East Seventeenth street, while bicycling in Madison street yesterday, was nearly run over by a cab horse driven by John Smith. His shoulder was broken.

THE WHOLE FAMILY CONTRIBUTES.

The whole Marimon family desires to contribute a dime each to the Dewey fund for our hero. We are just proud of our great man, but we have greater reason to be proud of our hero, for his heroism in defense of righteousness.

SET OFF DYNAMITE TO COMMIT SUICIDE.

Cumberland, Wis., Aug. 3.—Chris Wold, a farmer near Poskin Lake, committed suicide to-day by blowing off his head with dynamite. He placed a quantity of dynamite in a hole in the ground, laid his head over it and touched off the fuse.

YELLOW FEVER.

Many startling and curious facts about the present outbreak in the South will be found in next Sunday's Journal.

PORTUGALIS THE FAVORITE SCHOOLS

Admire Our Free Public System, and Want to Imitate It.

RESPECT THE TEACHERS

One of Them, Miss Hollobaugh, Is Here to Purchase Supplies.

"The children go to school in Porto Rico, and they are beginning to go to American schools, too. The foundation has been made for a free public school system in our new territory."

Thus spoke one of the passengers on the United States transport McClellan yesterday, Miss Edith V. Hollobaugh, principal of the first public school in Ponce. Five months ago, accompanied by two other school teachers—Miss Taylor and Miss Mendel—she went to Ponce to open a public school there. Its success has surpassed her most sanguine expectations.

Her object in coming to the United States now is to purchase school supplies and text books and engage more teachers. She will return to Ponce as soon as possible.

Expenses Paid by Municipality.

"Our position in Ponce," said Miss Hollobaugh to a journal reporter yesterday, "is unique. While we are, of course, under the supervision of the United States Government, all the expenses of the schools are paid for by the municipality, which makes the people take more interest in our work than if we were paid with American money."

The free public school is the one thing in the American system which Porto Ricans most admire. To imitate it and have their children educated as Americans are one of the highest ambitions. Our school is in the building that was once occupied as barracks by the Kentucky Volunteers. It is a long, low, one-story structure, but very well adapted to school purposes.

Children Very Docile.

"I cannot imagine children more kind, docile and tractable than are the children of Porto Rico. The only trouble is that they overwhelm you with their kindness. It once happened to me that the date of my birthday, and when I arrived in the school room on that morning I found it a mass of flowers."

The committee decided yesterday to have 5,000 or 10,000 children at Grant's Tomb on the second day of the Dewey celebration. They will sing national hymns in honor of the Admiral.

ROOT IS EXPECTED TO SQUELCH WILSON

Platt Will Use Him to "Bottle Up" the Brooklyn Kickers.

BREACH IS WIDENING.

A Demand May Be Made for the Summary Dismissal of the Insurgents.

So intensely bitter has become the struggle between the Platt and anti-Platt factions for control of the Kings County organization, and so free a use of President McKinley's name as an alleged backer of the crusade against Lieutenant-Governor Woodruff, has been made, that Elith Root, the new Secretary of War, has been sought to indicate in some way that the sympathies of the National Administration favor Woodruff and not Postmaster Wilson and his lieutenants.

Secretary Root came here from Washington last night. Though he comes ostensibly on official business, he is expected to meet Senator Platt, Lieutenant-Governor Woodruff, Governor Roosevelt, perhaps, and Chairman Arterbury and Executive Chairman Dady, either at Manhattan Beach or some other suitable spot, and let it be understood that the Administration is not interfering as yet in the imbroglio across the East River.

It may be that before he visits the President at Lake Champlain, Secretary Root will be asked by the Platt machine leaders to repeat to Mr. McKinley Senator Platt's characterization of Wilson as a "disturbing element in the politics of Brooklyn," and intimate, if not actually demand, that an ultra Platt man be placed at the head of Brooklyn's postal service.

Odell Arrives to-morrow.

Chairman B. Odell, of the Republican State Committee, is due here from Europe on the St. Louis to-morrow. On his arrival Odell will be asked his advice as to what shall be done with Wilson and also if he would demand the resignation of Woodruff. Revenue Collector Moore and Immigration Commissioner Fitcher for aiding and abetting Wilson in the contest to defeat Platt and Woodruff.

The anti-Woodruff folks laugh derisively at suggestions that the President could be induced to even so much as notice the requests for the punishment of Wilson, Moore and Fitcher. They say that Platt men are circulating the threats again in the hope of scaring their opponents. But they don't and won't scare.

Postmaster Wilson was so far from being alarmed yesterday that he made a most vigorous and defiant reply to Platt's declaration that he would resign if the Secretary of War were to appoint a "disturbing element in Brooklyn politics" if Wilson and Moore won they would set up a howl of triumph and say that the organization and the party had been beaten.

Wilson Replies to Platt.

"So Senator Platt thinks I am a disturbing element," repeated Wilson in a semi-sarcastic way. "If Senator Platt is right what is the use of holding primaries? If he is right we are simply throwing money away, and we ought to establish the selection of representatives of the official organization of the party in this as well as other counties."

"The Republicans of Kings ought to be permitted to settle their own differences in their own way."

Governor Roosevelt was to have met Senator Platt yesterday. The Governor got here from Oyster Bay just after the Senator left for Manhattan Beach. Having an engagement to speak at Ocean Grove in the evening, the Governor met Governor Voorhees, of New Jersey, at Jersey City, and went with him to the residence. Roosevelt will probably return to the city to-day and confer with Senator Platt, and perhaps with Secretary Root, about the selection of the party in Kings.

Bits of Local News.

Caroline Bailey, charged by "Abdul" with the murder of her husband, was discharged yesterday in Centre Street Police Court.
